

The Arnot Art Museum's annual Holiday Art Market is open - Celebrate the season and support the Arts!

The Holiday Art Market is a seasonal Exhibition which doubles as a retail pop-up shop. Held in the Museum's front Reading Room Gallery, it is a highly anticipated tradition. Come in to enjoy viewing these unique creations and perhaps find the perfect, special gift for a loved one - or yourself.

This year's market showcases nine regional artists, listed below. Pieces are available for purchase 13 October, 2020 through 9 January, 2021.

Betsy Kent • watercolor paintings
Barb Kurcoba • photography
Julie Waltz-Stalker • oil & watercolor paintings
Laura Glenn • mixed media collage & giclée prints
Alice Muhlback • symbolic & spirited characters, stationary goods
Mackenzie Stratton • ceramics
Daniel McPheeters • mixed media paintings & digital prints
Christy Spreng • hand-made jewelry
Charles Hargenrader • turned wood objects

* Drop in to shop, the Market is free to the public. (Regular admission fee applies to enter the gallery spaces for non-members).*

* Museum Members are eligible for a discount on Holiday Art Market purchases. Consider joining when you visit.*

